

Values Clarification

Greater Nashua Mental Health Center

Instructions: In ACT, values are chosen life directions — not goals to complete, but qualities of how you want to live. Rate how important each domain is and how consistently you've been living it, then choose one small committed action.

Life domains

For each domain, write a word or two about the kind of person you want to be there. Then rate Importance (1–10) and how well you're Living it now (1–10).

Domain	What matters here / who I want to be	Import.	Living

Domains: Family · Intimate relationships · Friendship · Work/Education · Health · Recreation/Fun · Personal growth/Spirituality · Community/Citizenship.

Committed action

Which domain has the biggest gap between importance and living?

One small, doable action this week that moves toward that value:
